

Rhode Island Business Group on Health

Behavioral Health Trends and Insights

Christine Zottoli, Partner, Mercer Health & Benefits Megan Flaherty, Principal, Mercer

June 22, 2022

welcome to brighter

The pandemic isn't over...

Behavioral health needs continue to evolve

1 in 4

U.S. workers say they're highly or extremely stressed¹

53%

of workers are experiencing burnout⁶

<35

Workers under 35 ranked mental health as their top concern

63%

of working parents have reported reducing their hours in order to care for a child with a mental health condition³ 30%

Increase in drug overdose deaths from 2019 to 2020⁴

2nd

Suicide remains the second leading cause of death among young people between the ages of 10 and 24⁵

Young adults, parents and caregivers, children and adolescents, and racial and ethnic minorities have experienced disproportionate impacts

Traditional networks do not have the supply of quality providers to meet the increasing and evolving demand

1-Mercer's Inside Employees' Minds Study of 2,000 workers, August 2021

Copyright © 2022 Mercer (US) Inc. All rights reserved.

²⁻Hartford 2021 Future of Benefits Study

^{3—}Families in Society

^{4—}Centers for Disease Control

[—]Centers for Disease Control

Whitehouse briefing 10/19/21

[—]Indeed survey on burnout

⁶⁻National Institute on Drug Abuse

Emerging issues for employers

Early data suggests that employees and Learned Increasing their families will Inflation of helplessness dependency the cost of need behavioral and decreasing on technology care health support on a control long-term basis, so employers must position themselves Increasing and Evolving need for Volatility and to address macro exacerbated specialized changes in work underlying forces that contribute resources structure behavioral health to evolving concerns expectations.

What employers are doing to provide support

No wrong front door

Leadership support

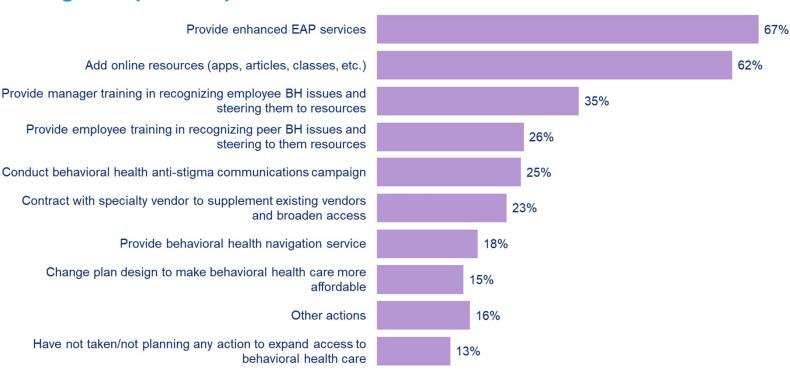

Destigmatization campaigns

Rebranding & enhancing communications

Support groups

Strategic alliances & steering committees

Most employers are expanding access to behavioral health care Strategies in place or planned for 2023

Copyright © 2022 Mercer (US) Inc. All rights reserved.

4

What employers are doing to provide resources Best practice is to provide support across the spectrum

Mercer

A new approach to EAPs

	Foundational EAP	Foundational EAP with Point Solution Overlay	Innovative "EAP"
Network	Broad	Broad + Evidence-based	Curated Evidence-Based, often integrating with health plan
Intake	Customer Service/Telephonic	Customer Service/Telephonic + Engaging technology/multi-modal access	Online Assessment & Navigation
Triage to Care	Generally Provide List of Provider Names	List of Providers via EAP + Additional avenue for support (digital)	Match to Provider Based on Clinical Presentation and Preferences
Telehealth	Some Tele-mental Health Supports	Tele-mental Health Supports with enhanced capabilities via point solutions	Strong Use of Virtual Treatment and Back- End Technology
Longer-term Care	Crisis Intervention & Short-Term Focused	Crisis Intervention & Short-Term Focused Some longer-term support (As Needed)	Clinical Focus with Option for Longer-Term Support (As Needed)
Work-Life	Standard	Standard via EAP	Delivered via Partnerships
Price Point	$	$$	$$$

Current State

Future State

Mercer

Copyright © 2022 Mercer (US) Inc. All rights reserved.

Learning from others

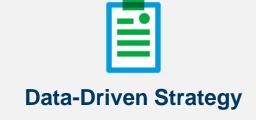

Employers are offering innovative solutions to provide emotional well-being and mental health support for their employees – more than access to an employee assistance program (EAP).

Raising awareness, focusing on key utilization trends to support emerging needs and manager training are well underway.

Solutions that focus on diversity, equity, & inclusion (DEI), technology, and increased access to quality providers will lead for 2023+.

Building your strategy

Questions for consideration

WHAT ARE THE MAIN CHALLENGES THAT YOU ARE HOPING TO RECTIFY?

WHAT AREAS ARE MOST IMPORTANT TO ADDRESS FOR THE POPULATION?

HOW ARE RESOURCES AND MODALITIES AVAILABLE FOR THOSE NEEDING BEHAVIORAL HEALTH SUPPORT MONITORED?

HOW ARE YOU PROMOTING AND SUPPORTING NAVIGATION TO AVAILABLE RESOURCES?

DO MEMBERS KNOW WHAT RESOURCES THEY HAVE CURRENTLY AVAILABLE TO THEM?

Best practices for supporting mental health

Employer support and resources are needed to make a difference

Support

- Navigation assistance and vendor integration
- Educational campaigns
- Manager training and leadership support
- Anti-stigma messaging
- ✓ Polling/listening sessions
- Diversity & inclusion commitment
- Access to more diverse, specialized, and quality providers

Resources

- Virtual access to mental health services
- ✓ Employee Assistance Program (EAP)
- Behavioral Health Digital Point Solutions
- ✓ Promote available benefits year round
- Community resources
- ✓ Financial well-being